

Need a Guide?

Summer is a great opportunity to learn a new piece of software, restructure your data analysis plan, or get a head start on planning for all that data you'll be collecting this Fall. Do you need a nudge, some suggestions, or maybe a tutorial? Did you know RSC staff can meet with you virtually or in person to discuss project plans, software suggestions, and other helpful advice. Think your question is broad enough that many users would benefit from the discussion? Let us know, and we can schedule it as a brown bag session for anyone to attend. Use our Consultation Request to submit for individual requests or brown bag suggestions.

Upcoming RSC Events:
